Remarks	1. A seventy percent is regarded as passing, with a full score being one hundred percent. The grade shall be assigned only once and is an average of the grades assigned by each thesis advisory committee member. The student shall not pass the master's examination if more than one half of the examiners assign a failing grade. The student shall not pass the doctoral examination if over one third of the examiners assign a failing grade. 2. After the degree examination is completed, the department must confirm the grades with the thesis advisory committee members and obtain their signatures before the grade report is filed with the Office of Academic Affairs for registration. The registration date represents the official passing completion of the degree examination and determines the academic year and semester of the student's graduation. 3. Diplomas may be picked up three working days after the grade report has been submitted to and registered with the Office of Academic Affairs. The student must submit a transcript of all coursework and complete the graduation procedures in order to receive the diploma. ※After passing the graduation examination, no further courses can be taken. Respective departments must have a full understanding of graduation and transcript timeframes in order to maintain the rights of the students.
